WNY Community Social Programs

Are you currently living with dementia or do you care for a loved one with a memory impairment?

Monthly community respite services offer social companionship, meaningful activities and active engagement for individuals living with dementia. They also provide a safe place to connect with others facing a similar journey, make new friends, and unwind. For care partners, these programs offer time to enjoy visits with friends and tend to their own needs.

Please note each program follows their own CoVid-19 safety guidelines.*

These programs are free-of-charge and have no residency rules, but registration is REQUIRED by calling contacts at individual sites.
